PRINCIPAL'S ADDRESS...

As quoted by Nelson Mandela "Education is the most powerful weapon on which, you can change the world." It's my great pleasure to mention here that the PG dept. of our college is indeed the pride of our institution. Both the faculty as well as the post graduate students, continuously take active part in different fields, as part of holistic education. Our PG faculties have raised the benchmark for the students for both academics as well as co-curricular activities. Hence, the dept. is always busy with one activity or the other. During this academic year the students under the guidance of staff organised a workshop on GST, Skill India, Industrial visit, Conclave and many more. At the post graduate level we not only concentrate on academics but put in considerable efforts in personality development and capacity building of our students in an attempt to prepare them for their future endeavours.

I am extremely delighted to write these few opening lines for the PG department newsletter 'Gyangranth III' which provides the glimpses of activities conducted and achievement of our PG department. I finally appreciate the dedicated effort put by newsletter committee towards bringing forth this third edition of newsletter "Gyangranth".

MESSAGE FROM EDITORIAL TEAM

Finally it's ready! It gives us great joy and satisfaction to put forth to you the third edition of Gyangranth. The academic year 2017-2018 has been very enriching and fruitful one this far.

The PG dept. has had an action packed year studded with numerous activities, programs and events. Thereby making this edition of Gyangranth a must read. We are extremely thankful to all our contributors namely Miss Dhanashri Durgaram Shet, Miss Pournima Ganpat Volvoikar, Miss Durva B. Petkar, Mast. Sahil Pilgaonkar, Miss Afsana Mujawar Miss Tanvi Mandrekar, Miss Sarika Rane, Miss Adiksha Fatrekar, Mast. Lokesh Velingkar, Mast. Shubham Nene, Mast. Girish Kapdi for their sincere efforts in writing for this newsletter. Our thanks goes out to Miss Alisha Gaonkar, (Asst. Prof. in Commerce., M.Com. dept.) for her article. We also express our deepest gratitude to M.Com Coordinator Mr. Narayan Parab for his constant support.

With this we conclude our opening remarks and now all that is left is for you to make a cup of tea and grab a copy of Gyangranth 3. Happy reading!

UNION BUDGET 2018 IMPLICATIONS ON STOCK MARKET

Budget hype as well as curiosity prevailed few days before the budget announcement. The market had got the hunch of current account deficit widening and levy of long term capital gains (LTCG) tax. In the month of January, the major stock indices of India i.e. National Stock Exchange (NSE) and Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) witnessed their all time highs. However Midcap and Smallcap indices revealed some correction. The market signified minor overbought conditions as indicated by Relative Strength Index, but bulls did not rest. As the Finance Minister commenced announcement of Budget, the stock market witnessed sharp rise in volatility as witnessed from VIX. The most hyped news of LTCG tax was announced and market saw a selloff. Sensex and Nifty plunged 600 and 200 points respectively. But soon market recovered upon the reduction of corporate tax from 30% to 25%. The market remained in correction phase for next few days. The real reason of this sudden decline is due to long awaited correction, levy of LTCG tax or global cues is question to be debated.

LET'S TALK STOCK

2017 was a bonanza for Indian investors. The vast and enormous earnings potential of the stock market was clearly visible. Top performing sectors were FMCG, infra & auto. Some of the multi baggers were Tinplate Company of India Ltd., Goa Carbon Ltd., Edelweiss Financial Services, Rain Industries Ltd., Avanti Feeds Ltd. and many more.

The app world has indeed made life blissful as there is an app for almost everything. Virtual trading apps like stock trainer, dalal street give you live trading experience with imaginary currency. Though the currency may be unreal, the experience gained from trading in such apps is priceless. As one can learn to buy and sell stocks, analyze stock patterns and trends and more importantly gain stock and industry specific knowledge. Hence, I urge commerce students to think of investing and to invest in the stock market. But in order to invest you should learn the basics and fundamentals of trading in the stock market.

With that said, year 2018 seems to be very promising with NIFTY already breaching 11,000 mark. Sectors to watch out for this year are FMCG, consumer durables, infra, auto, metals, housing finance & cement. Lastly, I conclude with popular investor funda: SAVE. INVEST. PROSPER.

LIVE AT ALCON

Narayan Zantye College of Commerce carried out an industrial visit on 9th September, 2017 at Alcon Cement Company (Surla), Aditya Beverages (Madkaim) & Agarwal Renewable Energy Pvt. Ltd. (Ponda). The objective behind the visit was to make students aware about the production processes & accounting procedures and to get practical exposure of corporate sector. Altogether 70 students along with 3 faculty participated in the field visit.

Mr. Narayan Parab (Safety officer, Alcon) instructed us by giving precautionary guidelines & briefed us about the types of safety procedures adopted in the company, further we had input sessions on quality assurance, production, stores and accounting process. We indeed gained a lot of practical knowledge relating to the cement industry. Post lunch we visited Aditya beverages; they are involved in the manufacture of plastic bottles and bottling of mineral water. Mr. Hamza Shaikh (Accountant, Aditya beverages) provided us some valuable information on the entire process of bottling as well as he showed the whole manufacturing process practically, right from the purchase of raw material till the final output being produced.

Lastly, we moved on to our last company which is Agarwal Renewable Energy Pvt. Ltd. There we came across with the production process involved in manufacture of solar panels. Mr. Mohan Yadav engaged a very informative session. Among many things he also explained how energy is transformed from one cell to another. At around 5.00 pm we came to an end of the field visit. It was a fruitful experience as we all gained a lot of knowledge from these companies. We are indeed very grateful to the management of all these three companies for lending an arm to facilitate such Industry-Institute Interaction.

CONCLAVE 2K18: EDUCATE. ENRICH. ENLIGHTEN

Educate, Enrich and Enlighten the mind and body was the motive behind organizing such a wonderful event called CONCLAVE 2k18. The day started with warm welcome of the resource persons and with positive vibes spread by Dr. Oscar Demelo, one of the best sessions attended in Post-Graduation. The way Sir Oscar expressed his views towards positivity and happiness was marvelous. He stated many inspiring quotes such as: "Success is within you"; "You cannot tell someone else to do your push-ups", "Event+Response=Outcome", and many more. He gave six principles for success, 1. Take 100% responsibility for your life, 2. Have a burning desire, 3. Commit to excellence, 4. Principle of value, 5. Principle of compensation, and 6.

Develop personality of success. I am sure all the students have gain a lot and have been truly inspired. In short the session was wow!!!

Having positivity and being happy at workplace can lead to greater achievements. The second session focused on work life. Dr. K. G. Sankaranarayanan and Dr. Harip Khanapuri was the resource person. They shared their experience of struggle towards achievements and gave solutions to tackle problems faced at workplace.

Keeping your mind fresh makes you relax and keeping your body fit helps you to stay healthy. Mrs. Supriya Pilgaonkar, Lt. Sam Braganza accompanied by our Officiating Principal Sir Rajesh Amonkar were the guests for the final session on enlightened mind and body. This session was highly interactive and students put forth many question to the panel. I am glad to be a part of such a wonderful event organized by PG department of Narayan Zantye College of Commerce. Stay Positive. Stay Happy. Stay Fit.

A ROCKING PARTY TO BEGIN...

Fresher's party is an event, which every fresher anxiously awaits for, the seniors of Narayan Zantye College of Commerce, of PG Department, organized a fresher's party on 1st July, 2017. The theme for fresher's party was "dress at your best". So we dressed up with a combination of black and blue colour. While we entered the hall our seniors tied fluorescent band on our wrist and welcomed us with a million dollar smile. On entering, we felt as if we are in heaven, the decoration was outstanding, the venue was surrounded with colourful butterflies, and the diligent efforts of our seniors were clearly visible.

The party began with a melodious voice by one of our senior, Miss Trupti Galyekar. It was followed by a brief introductory session of the juniors which included introduction and performing an allotted task/talent. Senior Professor Dr. K. G. Sankaranarayanan and Officiating Principal Sir Rajesh Amonkar unveiled the M.Com. Academic Planner for the year 2017-2018. They also spoke a few words of encouragement and wished us well in our academics. Further, we played some interesting games and spot prizes, some mates sang beautifully and performed dances. Our seniors shared beautiful memories of their M.Com. journey with us. We all enjoyed the party to the fullest. The party wended up with photographs followed by delicious refreshment. Everything was well planned and organized. Once again thanks to our beloved seniors for such a rocking enjoyable party.

RIVEM WATERFALL...

On 15th July 2017 PG Department of Narayan Zantye College of Commerce went for a hike at Rivem waterfall Valpoi. The Journey was embarked by 50 students including 3 teachers and 2 guides. From Rivem village it took 2 hours to reach waterfall. The height of the waterfall was enormous & the way was very risky & slippery. Students showed their coordination by helping each other to climb the height. That showed the helping nature of everyone. Students enjoyed a lot at the waterfall and also shared food with each other. All were in a relaxed mind & were enchanted by nature's beauty. For all it will be long lasting memory in their life.

SKILL INDIA

A skill India programme was organised in Narayan Zantye College of Commerce. Two competitions under skill India were organized, firstly a poster making competition for M.Com. part I and secondly a rangoli competition for M.Com. part II. The theme for both the competitions was India's new tax reform that is 'GST'. Programme like skill India allow students to polish their ideas and think creatively. It's an opportunity for the students to put forward their brilliant ideas to work by spreading lots of colours over a paper sheet and better use of rangoli colours. These competitions kept students engaged and inspired them to work collectively and enhance their creative thinking. One could see and feel the efforts and dedication of the students. Each poster, and rangoli was a treat to the eyes. We enjoyed and learned a lot from this event.

PATRIOTIC MARKETING: BOOSTING OF BRAND IMAGE

Now the era is informative era of marketing. We can find digital marketing everywhere. The rural moments are highly digitalized and they are more aware about the brands and products than the busy urban people. Patriotic marketing involves the use of promotional strategies that convey a sense of national pride. When companies incorporate images, slogans designed to appeal to consumer patriotism into their marketing strategies, they are using patriotic marketing. This type of marketing can involve:-

- Giving patriotic names to products.
- Designing the package with patriotic colours and images.
- Making special offers to military personnel and veterans.
- Emphasising the use of domestic materials and manufacturing process.

Companies that choose to use patriotic messages in their marketing efforts understands that many consumers allow their sense of national pride influence their purchasing power. If anyone planning to utilise patriotic images in their marketing messages, make sure that everything remains in good taste and conveys the proper measure of respect for country.

LIFE IS ALL ABOUT EXPECTATIONS!

First of all, I would like to thank editorial team for giving me an wonderful opportunity to write an article called "life is all about Expectations". As we say vision without mission is impossible, likewise life without expectations is meaningless. Right from the time we are born till we breathe our last breath within these stage expectations of human being is multiple. As in the royal family or poor background family when the child is born, parents expect multiple things from them. If baby boy is born, parent expectations are like "My son will be doctor in future". This is how expectations takes place at the initial stage. When baby girl takes birth, she become main responsibility. As she is women, she plays three different roles in life at initial stage when she is someone sister and daughter, once married become some ones wife and thirdly when she becomes mother. At each stage family expect positive response from them. Is it necessary to expect from contribution? Just imagine! What would be life without expectations?

Accordingly I assume that, if there were zero expectations, the several contribution given by per person would be slightly lower. Expectations is this in mind of youth, as well as in senior citizen. The present generation is continuously taking key interest in different field such as education, sports, paintings etc. At each stage they devote more number of efforts expect positive response. College students are running with higher education with the hope, they would be placed at higher job position in future. As a child studying in a school, if topped in school. The first question would be asks to their parents – what you will give me? I believe that human being should expect from their contribution as it enlighten the positive thought and developed and create motivational spirit.

EXPLORING NORTH INDIA

Experiencing the adventure was our sole motivation to choose North India as our tour destination. We started our tour journey with lot of enthusiasm and excitement on Thursday 30th November, 2017 via Nizamuddin Express which was departing from Margao Railway Station at 8.45 am.

In Delhi we visited Swaminarayan Akshar Dham - world's largest Hindu Temple it measures 109 mts. in length and 96 mts. in breadth. After lunch we visited lotus temple; Qutub Minar which is the highest tower in India. Late evening we visited India Gate an important historical monument of Delhi city, built in remembrance of more than 80,000 Indian Soldiers who were killed during World War I.

We had night journey to reach at Shimla. At around 3.30 am on 3rd December we reach at Kalka Railway Station. It was a very lonely place and the temperature was around 5 degree and we were freezing. We left for Shimla by Toy train at 6.00 am. Although it was very cold temperature but due to our enthusiasm and excitement time flew by as we were laughing, playing games, singing songs, experiencing nature beauty and having merry time together. Toy train was a wonderful experience. We reached Shimla around 12.00 noon. After a short rest at Hotel Sukh Sagar Regency, we visited Shimla Church, Mall Road and Lakkad Bazar which is known for wooden articles made by small group of Sikh carpenters who settled there a century ago from Hoshiarpur.

On 4th December early morning we left to Manali. It was around 12 hours journey from Shimla. Our trip to Manali was enjoyable simultaneously adventurous. We reached around 9.00 pm. We were shivering as the climatic weather was -1 degree. Next morning after breakfast we visited Vasisht kund, Tibetan Monastries and then snow point of Manali. It was the first time we did some skiing and played a lot with the snow. We also visited Hidimba an ancient cave temple.

On 6th December after lunch we went for river rafting on the river Beas at Kullu. It was an awesome experience as the water was ice cold and the river was fast flowing. Then we visited Vaishnav Devi temple at Kullu and then we proceed towards Amritsar.

Next day, on 7th December we arrived at Amritsar at 7.00 am after freshening our self and having breakfast we visited the famous Golden Temple of Amritsar, the historically significant Jallinwala Bagh and evening we visited Wagah Border.

Lastly, we moved towards Chandigarh. There we saw a beautiful rock garden, its an sculpture garden in Chandigarh. After visiting rock garden finally we did our shopping at sector 17. Finally, from Chandigarh station through Goa Sampark Kranti Express we return back to Goa.

The tour was an great moment of experiencing the adventure. We reached at Margao railway station around 7.00 pm on 10th December and had a wonderful educational tour with a merry time.

M.COM BEST PRACTICES

Each day the PG Department of NZCC, gives opportunities to students to learn new things and show their innovative skills. As the saying goes "Prayer is the key of the day, and the lock of the night" we begin each day with a prayer to invoke God's blessings on us.

A new thought with a positive message is written on the board by students to create a positive mind set. Daily facts are read out in the classroom and a particular student then explains it. As news makes us aware of the things which are happening in our country and around the world, news headlines are also read in class by students.

Also everyday student's exhibit an innovative concept of his/her interest with the explanation about the particular invention, uses, purpose and scope. Some of the popular exhibition of the day were titled - Era of Lights, Exhibition of Stuff Toys, Photography, Trophy's and Exhibition on Wooden Art etc.

Last but not the least at the end of the day a question is given to the class is a challenge and the students are expected to get the answers to it the next day. Some of the memorable question of the day were - Does apple tree grow in Goa? How much mega pixel does human eye have? Why do doctors wear white and lawyers black? Why does rainbow have only seven colours?
