

Programme Outcomes A. B.Com. (Hons.)

Bachelor's Degree in Commerce (B.Com.)

After completing the programme, the B.Com graduate will be able to:

PO1: Understand important business fields, including accounting and finance, marketing, economics, regulation, information technology, communication, regulations and quantitative approaches, and keep up-to-date with developments in these areas.

PO2: Develop analytical skills by applying appropriate accounting, finance, economics, and quantitative science tools and methods to create stronger market insights, solve emerging organizational challenges, and introduce successful planning.

PO3: build decision-making skills in the sense of alternative strategies to optimize an enterprise's contribution to the achievement of stakeholder objectives.

PO4: Develop effective communication skills to handle organizational transactions between individuals, business correspondence and enhance the organizational picture.

PO5: Build a broad range of expertise in business, law, statistics, finance, entrepreneurship and analytics.

PO6: Apply the managerial skills, abilities and knowledge in a business organization, and be capable of maintaining business accounts.

PO7: Participate effectively in social, commercial and civic issues that eventually contribute to national growth.

PO8: Develop a spirit of entrepreneurship and actively engage in social, commercial and civic issues that eventually lead to national growth.