When teacher is explain a concept she should teach us something out of the book. And not from the books only

I suggest it should be more practical

- 1) encourage students to ask questions
- 2) create healthy environment for students so that would not feel awkward to ask doubts and questions.
- 3) use a simple examples of day to day life so that while studying for the exams students can able to relate that examples to the concept
- 4) told students to write down the examples or certain points while teaching.

Teachers should give sufficient time to study
Teachers should not thought online lecture
Teachers must be revise previous topic again and again

Take regular offline classes for all
