Narayan Zantye College of Commerce, Bicholim, in association with the Department of Co-operation, Government of Goa, organized Sahakar Samvad Diwas on 3rd July 2026. The programme aimed to create awareness among students about the significance of the co-operative movement and its role in socio-economic development.

The event commenced with the registration of students and participants, followed by an introduction to the programme and briefing on the schedule. The ceremonial lamp was lit in the presence of dignitaries. Shri Hemant Khedekar (ARCS) delivered the welcome address and highlighted the importance of co-operation in promoting collective growth and community welfare.

Dr. Prof. Rajendra Kumbhrajvekar, Principal of Narayan Zantye College of Commerce, addressed the gathering and emphasized the contribution of co-operative institutions towards sustainable development and self-reliance. A special talk and live demonstration on the traditional Goan Kaavi Art was conducted by Shri Sagar Naik Mule, which was informative and highly appreciated by the participants.

A quiz competition on co-operation and related topics was organized and conducted by Associate Professor Shri Ramchandra Surlekar, generating enthusiastic participation among students. Students from Government College, Sanquelim, also participated in the competition. The programme further included a tree plantation drive to promote environmental awareness and responsibility.

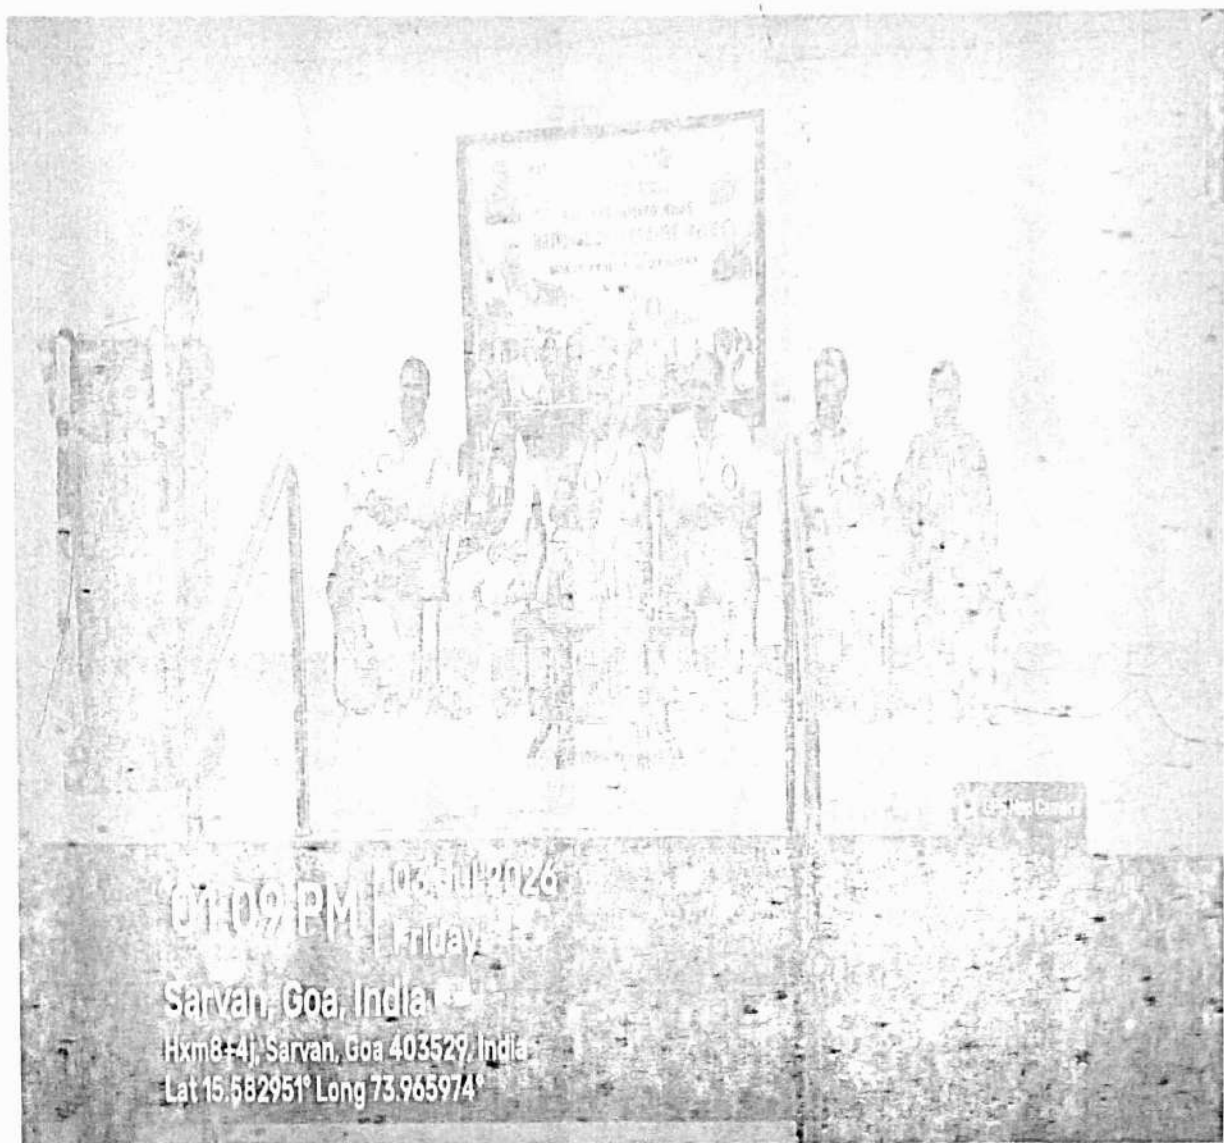

In the quiz competition, the First Prize was awarded to Harsh Pandit and Siddharth Ghadi from Government College, Sanquelim. The Second Prize was secured by Sanika Naik and Aryan Hoble of Narayan Zantye College of Commerce, while the Third Prize was won by Smita

Gauns and Karuna Gauns from Government College, Sanquelim. The winners were felicitated during the prize distribution ceremony.

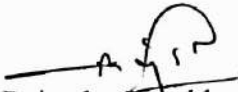

The programme concluded with the presentation of tokens of love, a vote of thanks by Shri Yogesh Surlaker, and lunch for all participants. Dr. Ajita Morajker, Chairperson of the Consumer Welfare Cell, Mrs. Manalee Sinari, Member of the Cell, and a total of 118 students attended the programme. The event proved to be highly informative, engaging, and successful.
